

Accessing Databases through the UA Library

Step One

Go to “University Libraries: Article & Database Searching”

<http://www.library.arizona.edu/indexes/links/>

Step Two

Under Find Databases by TITLE: Chose the first letter of the name of your database

OR

Find Databases in your SUBJECT area by using the drop-down menu and then Go!
